

GLOBAL REGISTRATION SERVICES, INC

2024 Late Fees Dates

All licenses expire, and six government agencies add late fees to all unpaid license renewals on a certain date.

To avoid late fees, please make your payment to GRS before the late fee dates listed below. Payments received on the GRS late fee day will be invoiced the late fee, despite being paid before the license expires. If you pay by wire transfer or check, please let us know to expect payment by emailing LM@globalrsinc.com.

California

California's renewal deadline is 2 years after your license was originally issued or renewed last.

If GRS does not receive payment before that date, you may be charged an initial late fee of $100. If 90 days from that date pass without payment, California will charge you an additional $225.

This chart shows when you will be charged late fees based on your license's expiration date.
